

27th Annual Harvest Festival Map

Equipment Field

Special thanks to WESTCO and Simplot for their help with fertilizer and defoliant and West Nebraska Seed & Chemical for forage seed.

Forage Demonstrations

Potato Field

A special thanks to Thompson Seed for Potato Seed.

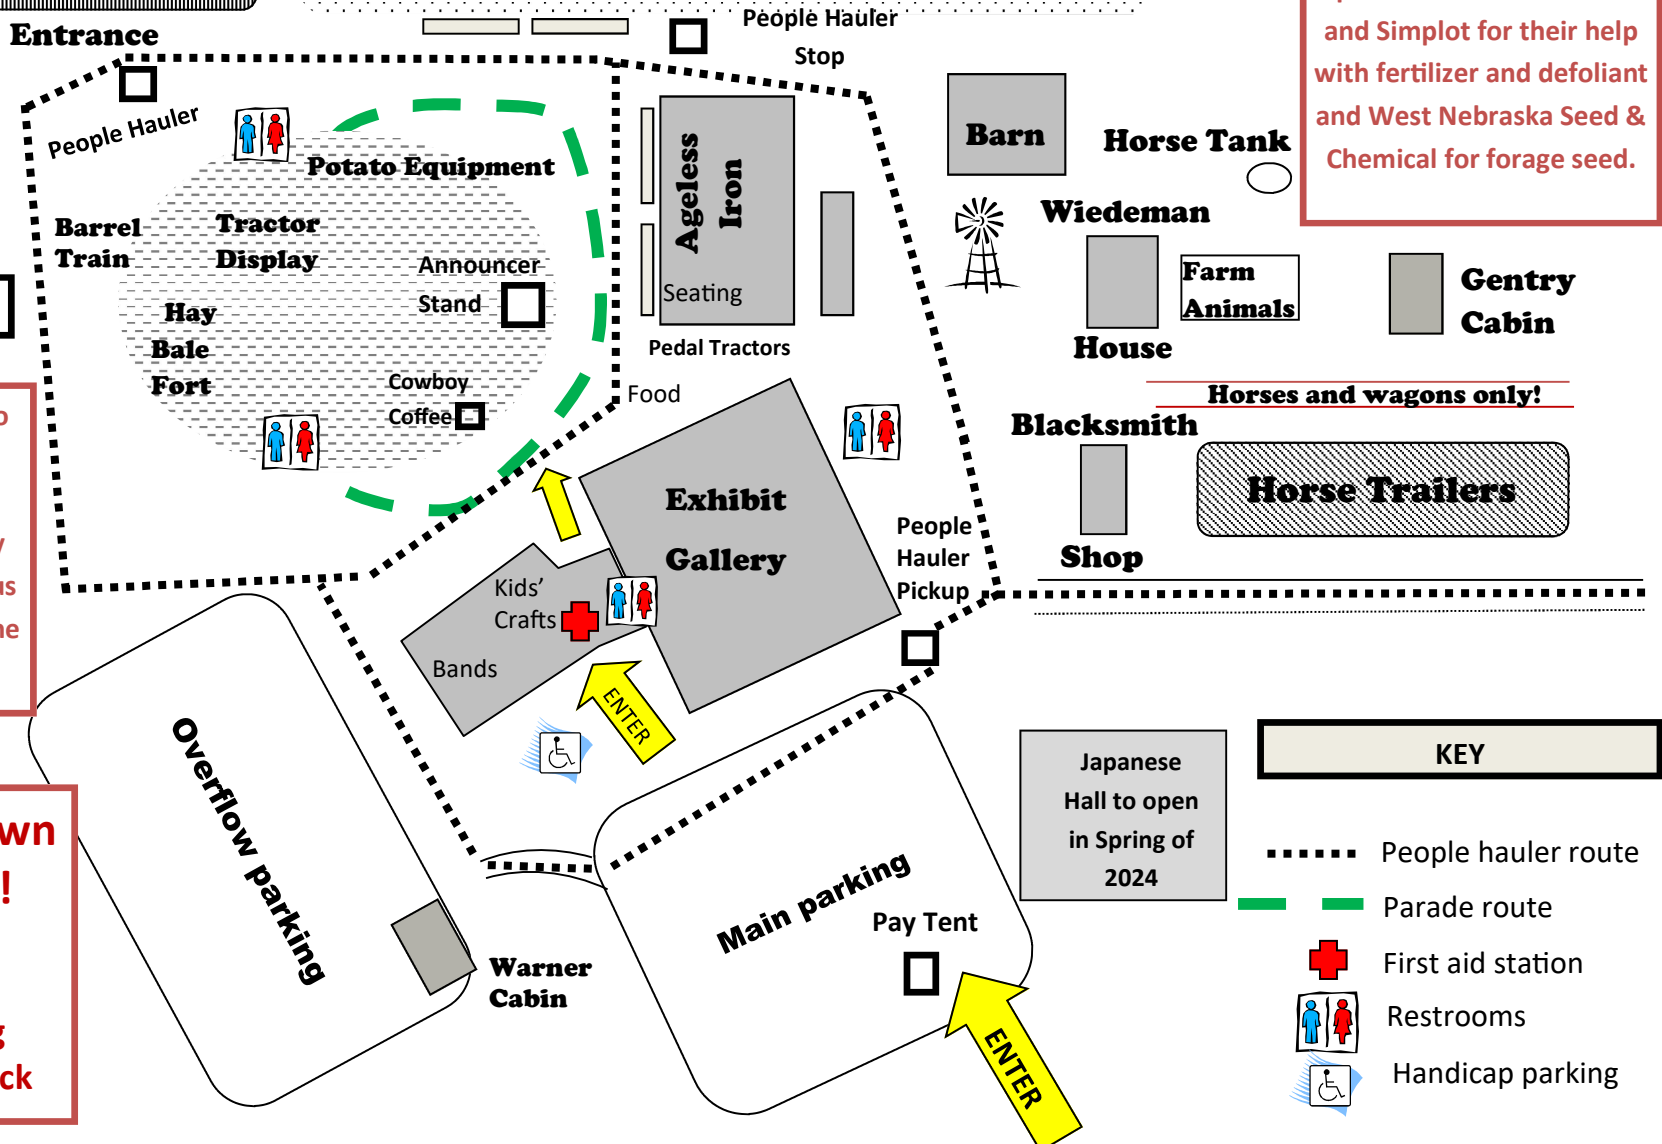

Longhorns

A special thanks to Billy DeBoer and B&L Holdings and Listing, and Randy Kiesel for loaning us the hay bales for the fort.

Pick your own potatoes!

Prices:
 $5 - 10 lb. bag
 $10 - 25 lb. bag
 $20 a gunny sack

Entrance

Horses and wagons only!

KEY

- People hauler route
- Parade route
- ⊕ First aid station
- ♂ ♀ Restrooms
- ♿ Handicap parking

2023 Harvest Festival Schedule

Saturday, September 16th

9:00 am	Event opens
9:30 – 11:00 am	Hand, Horse, & Machine
	Forage Harvest Demonstration
10:00 – 12:00 am	Live Music – (inside)
1:00 – 2:00 pm	Horse & Tractor Parade
3:00 – 4:00 pm	OPEN – Potato Patch
2:00 – 4:00 pm	Hand, Horse, & Machine
	Forage Harvest Demonstration
5:00 pm	Event Closes

Sunday, September 17th

9:00 – 10:00 am	Church Service
10:00 am	Event Opens
10:00 – 12:00 pm	Hand, Horse, & Machine
	Forage Harvest Demonstration
	Live Music- (inside)
12:00 – 2:00 pm	OPEN – Potato Patch
11:00 – 2:00 pm	Horse & Tractor Parade
1:00 – 2:00 pm	Hand, Horse, & Machine
2:00 – 4:00 pm	Forage Harvest Demonstration
	Event Closes
4:00 pm

* Schedule is subject to change

Open the whole time: Potato Patch, Dairy King food/treat trucks, hay bale fort, pedal tractors, barrel train, tractor pulled wagon rides, live farm animals, Blacksmith Shop, Gentry Cabin, Wiedeman Farmstead, and other demos.

Indoor activities: Gallery open, bake sale, cook-books for sale; Beef & Quilt raffle ticket sales; Membership table, kids' crafts, home craft demos and gift shop.

Enjoy the Exhibit Hall for free, sponsored by Inland Truck Parts & Service, WNCC, B&C Steel, Sandberg Implement, and Bill & Marsha Vaughan

A special thanks to Legacy of the Plains Museum's volunteers, staff and board of directors for continuing to make this event possible.

www.legacyoftheplains.org #iamlegacy

(308)436-1989